

INTERNATIONAL GRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP
Application Cover Sheet

Application packages must include: 1) this cover sheet; 2) a nomination letter; 3) an endorsement letter (if applicable); 4) a student statement; 5) a statement from the home institution; 6) a statement from the host institution; 7) the student's CV (two-page maximum). Upon Graduate School approval, a signed commitment agreement will be required.

The application package must be assembled in a single PDF file and sent to the Graduate School at IGRF@umd.edu. For complete information about the award, please consult the Fellowship Guidelines on the Graduate School website.

Date of Application: _____

Student Information:

Student Name _____ Directory ID (UMD students only) _____

Student Full Mailing Address _____

Student Email Address _____ Student Phone Number _____

UMD Department/Program _____

Home Institution Information:

(Where the student is currently enrolled)

Home Institution _____

Home Institution Address _____

Department/Program sponsoring the fellowship _____

Home Institution Advisor (name, email) _____

Host Institution Information:

(Where the student will conduct research)

Host Institution _____

Host Institution Address _____

Department/Program sponsoring the fellowship _____

Host Institution Advisor (name, email) _____

Fellowship Information:

The student will conduct research on _____ (Field/Project)

Start Date: _____ End Date: _____ Total Estimated cost: $ _____ (travel, food and lodging)

International students coming to UMD must obtain a Short Term Research J1 Visa in order to participate in this research opportunity. To obtain the visa, financial documentation, such as a personal bank statement, may be required.