The following are questions which are designed to give the faculty some impression of who you are and your reasons for being interested in our program. There are no right or wrong answers.

1. What 3 adjectives would you choose to best describe yourself? For each, give an incident from your life which illustrates this characteristic of you.
2. What life experiences have led to your decision to enter the helping profession, to train to be a therapist?
3. Why did you choose this particular training program?
4. Write a question and answer that you think would help us know you better. Answer it as fully as you feel able to.
